RAPID TRANSIT ASSISTS KAMS

Street Car Players to Take Part in International Games.

The Kamehameha baseball team is scheduled to play the Keios on Saturday.

Three of the team's best players, Reuter, Hamauku and Fern, are employees of the Rapid Transit company, and it has been feared by the lovers of the game that the pressure of fleet week might prevent some of them from playing.

Manager Ballentyne stated yesterday afternoon, however, that arrangements had been made by which it was assured that the Kams could count on having all three men on their team during the entire international series.

Mr. Ballentyne said further that not only for the present occasion, but as a general policy, the Rapid Transit company would always do what it could to foster and assist baseball in Honolulu, more particularly the games promoted by the baseball trustees and league, who must be looked to, to keep the game up to a high standard of efficiency and character.

The Rapid Transit company has giving all of the local, as well as the visiting ball teams from Japan and California, passes over its car lines to and from all games.

AIDION NOW IN HONOLULU

The steamer Claudine arriving from Maui yesterday morning brought five racehorses, including the Waiuku crack Aidion.

The presence of Dan Carey's runner may lead to a match being made with Louis Warren's Bruner. Warren had a good meeting at Hilo and being a good sportsman will race his old breadwinner with anything like a chance of breaking even.

In Aidion, Bruner will find a worthy opponent, and a match between the two would draw the biggest crowd to the track that has witnessed a local horse race for a very long time.

HAWAII AGAINST FLEET.

The tug-of-war contests at the Midway last night resulted in the Huchues defeating the Pools in seven minutes.
The O. R. & L. Co. team forfeited to the Honolulu and in their place a picked team pulled with the Hawaiis, the latter winning in two minutes.

The next pulls will take place on Saturday evening.

The Hawaiis challenge the best team that the fleet has, and are willing to meet them in the old fishmarket under the auspices of the fleet entertainment committee.

MISTAKE IN THE PROGRAM.

Through an error the program of the Country Club states that the entries for the McInerney golf cup close at the club on Sunday.

Entries for the event mentioned close at E. O. Hall & Son's store tomorrow at 5 p. m.

The competition starts on Sunday and will run over several weeks.

ALOHA CLUB TO GET BUSY.

The Aloha Athletic club will make preparations as soon as the fleet is in port for a festive carnival which Manager Klemme says will attract all lovers of boxing.

The arena of the club has been enlarged and other improvements made, and today the place is the equal of any other of its kind in the city.

The U. S. S. Relief nine defeated the U. S. S. Yankton team on Sunday by the score of 19 to 15.

Pat Walsh Challenges

P. J. Walsh, well known in Honolulu, is looking for a walking match at any distance from one to five miles, to take place a month from now and is willing to make a side bet of $250.

Walsh, twenty years ago, was one of the world's crack athletes and won many contests in Australia and the States. He was a frequent competitor at Madison Square Garden and competed with success against the best runners, walkers and jumpers in the country.

He used to run the hundred in ten seconds and the 150-yards in close to fifteen seconds. His broad jump record was 21 feet 5 inches and his pole vault figures 11 feet 8 inches.

Walsh held the world's professional high jumping record for fourteen years of 6 feet 3 3/4 inches. Eventually Sweeney of Ireland eclipsed this mark.
Walsh used to compete in the name of his mother and was entered as P. J.
Davlin.

Walsh is now 48 years of age but believes that he can still show the youngsters a thing or two in the athletic line.

He is willing to concede ten pounds to any man in the Territory and compete against him in a series of athletic events to be named by him, and is prepared to bet $1000 on himself.

FIRST DAY'S COWBOY CARD

The program for the first day of the Wild West show which will be tomorrow, is as follows:

One mile cowboy relay race, potato race, broncho busting, wild steer roping and tying contest, wild steer riding, wild steer riding by men of the fleet only, with saddles; maverick branding, tug-of-war, wild horse roping, steer roping, stage hold-up by Indians, wild horse race.

One of the sights of the town yesterday was Cowboy Nigel Jackson mounted on the original fattest calf and announcing with a megaphone information regarding the show. Trailing him was a polo player on a pony.
The show will commence at 1 p. m. sharp.

DANCING AT THE MIDWAY.

The Hawaiian Midway will be a blaze of glory tonight.

The big feature will be dancing by a corps of Spanish girls who arrived by the S. S. Heliopolis. These girls are pretty, and talented dancers and range in age from 14 to 20. They will dance the fandango, Sevillana and tango dances.

There will also be the good old hulahula and an exhibition of dancing a la Tahiti.

During the visit of the fleet there will always be something doing at the Midway in the line of boxing, tug-of-war and wrestling. There will also be exhibitions of Oriental juggling and a collection of island freaks. Steer for the Midway!

CHILLINGWORTH PITCHES AGAIN.

Bill Chillingworth will pitch for the Diamond Heads on Sunday against the Keios.

He has not been in the box for quite a time, having suffered from a wrenched shoulder.

The Diamond Heads have had to depend on Leslie, and although the latter has made good, they feel much more comfortable with a good reserve twirler in sight.

Ewas defeated the Waianae Seniors on Sunday on the Ewa diamond by the score of 16 to 2. In the first inning the pitcher of the Waianae was knocked out of the box, eight runs being scored.

JOHN O'ROURKE DENIES RACE ROBBERY IN HILO

Hilo, Hawaii, July 13, 1908.

Sporting Editor Advertiser: I see an account in the Advertiser of July 7th, in which Jockey Ferreira made the statement that he was robbed by thugs in Hilo or he would have won the last race.

I beg to say that this statement is not correct. Jockey Ferreira had a personal difference with Jockey Everson on the morning of the Fourth and Everson gave him a licking.

If Mr. Warren or any one else thinks that Bruner can beat Frolic for three-fourths of a mile I will match him for $500. And if Mr. Warren wants to make the race longer I will put up an additional $100 for each eighth of a mile over the three-fourths until the bet equals $5000.

Speaking of being robbed in Hilo, I wish to say that in weighing out after the seven-eighths mile race on July 3, the jockey on Bruner was found to be three pounds under weight. As you know, this would disqualify the horse on any track in the world, but we let him have the race because if we had not we would have been called robbers.

The judges in the stand were fully capable of discharging their duties and had the confidence of the people.

Our starter, Mr. Campbell, understands this business thoroughly, and when the horses are in his hands, friends and foes are all the same to him, and the flag usually drops with the horses in a bunch.

I trust Mr. Warren will see his way clear to accept this challenge which will settle all disputes as to whether he was robbed.

JOHN O'ROURKE.

BOXING STARTS THIS EVENING

A Classy Four-Event Card Is Presented by Central Club.

Eddie Tait, matchmaker and referee of the Central Club, has succeeded in bringing together the best local talent in Honolulu for a grand boxing carnival to be held tonight on Hotel street next to the merry-go-round.

The management has erected the first open air arena in Honolulu and it should be appreciated by the audience as well as the boxers, as it will do away with smoke and heat. This has been a drawback to such affairs in the past.

The winner of the Jack McFadden-Sailor Moch championship bout will no doubt be pitted against the best man in the fleet as there will be no question as to the title. It looks as though the boxing game with such men at the helm will be as well patronized as formerly and it is welcome news to hear that Eddie Tait intends to send to the coast for more good, classy boys.

The events on the card for tonight are:

Jack McFadden of San Francisco, champion lightweight of Hawaii, vs.
Sailor Moch of Honolulu, challenger, 10 rounds.

Young McCullough of Fort Shafter, vs. Pete Stanley of San Francisco, 6 rounds.

Kid Cabral vs. Young Heine, 6
rounds.

W. E. Poole vs. Red Casey, 4 rounds.
McFadden, who boxes Sailor Moch tonight, beat Young Nelson in Honolulu three years ago, knocking him out in eight rounds.

The bouts will start at 8:30 p. m. sharp and Eddie Tait will referee.
The club will present another strong card on Saturday night and probably on Monday and Tuesday.

On Saturday an attractive feature on the card will be a battle royal, the first affair of this kind to be pulled off here.

SPORTS AT THE FISHMARKET

The arena in the old fishmarket for the sports to be conducted under the auspices of the fleet entertainment committee, has been completed and all concerned are waiting for the gong.

On account of a broken finger Billy Woods will not box Mike Patton tomorrow night, as has been announced.
"Demon" Sylvia will fill the vacancy and will box six rounds with Patton.
The other events tomorrow night will be a wrestling exhibition between Sailor Roberts and another expert, and a tug-of-war between an All-American and a Portuguese team.

Paddy Ryan will referee the boxing.
Chairman Ryan of the indoor sports committee is handicapped in making up his cards owing to talent being so scarce in Honolulu. He may be relied upon to engage the services of the best men procurable, however.

Ryan and Sports Committee Chairman A. L. C. Atkinson will have a conference with Lieut. Weaver, the sports officer of the fleet, as soon as the battleships arrive and arrange for boxing, wrestling and tug-of-war contests for next week.

KEIOS MAY VISIT HILO

Word comes from Hilo that the Japanese in Umbrellaburg are raising a fund to bring the Keio University baseball team to their city.

The Hilo Japs take a great interest in baseball and have a team of their own, the Naniwas, who have made a good showing in the Hilo league this season. When the Naniwas play, their countrymen always turn out in force to watch them.
